The Normal Heat of the Body
is 98.4° F. Retain this normal or natural heat and there will be little danger of pneumonia, coughs, colds, catarrh or chest and lung trouble. Keep warm and comfortable on the coldest days, without cumbersome clothing, by wearing a perfect-fitting tailor-made Frost King or Frost Queen Chamois Vest.

These garments are made to keep out the cold damp winds, and retain the natural heat of the body. They protect the chest, back and throat. Perfect fitting—comfortable and helpful. Will last several seasons.

RANDOLPH.

Mrs. G. W. Douglas of Barre has been visiting her old neighbors in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bessette came home the first of the week from their visit in Plymouth, Mass.

Mrs. J. E. McCall left here Friday for New York, where she will pass the greater part of the winter.

Mrs. Harry Eaton of Melrose Highlands, Mass., is passing the week with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Eaton.

Miss Alice Woodward has returned to her work in Mohonk Lake, after passing several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Woodward.

Mark Morse left here Friday for Ludlow to attend the boys' convention at that place. Mr. Morse went as a delegate from the Federated church.

Miss Mary Wedgwood, who has been with her mother, Mrs. Annie Wedgwood, for three weeks, has returned to her work as librarian in a library in Chicago, Mass.

William Montlon, a Pullman car conductor from Boston to Albany, has closed his month's vacation here with his mother, Mrs. Ann Montlon, and gone to resume his run.

H. L. Patch was summoned the 4th of the month to Bellows Falls by the critical illness of his father, E. A. Patch, who died Friday morning at a private hospital in Saxtons River. Mrs. Patch went to the funeral, which was held Sunday in Claremont, N. H.

At the meeting of the stockholders of Randolph National bank, held on Tuesday, the following directors were elected: Willard Gay, Emmett A. Thomas, Charles E. DuBois, Dana H. Morse and Osman B. Copeland. At the directors' meeting, Mr. Thomas was elected president, Mr. Gay vice president, Mr. Copeland cashier and Fred O. Copeland assistant cashier.

The remains of John Prince, accompanied by Mrs. Prince and the daughter, Mrs. Sherwin Flint, and her children, arrived on Friday afternoon and were taken at once to the cemetery, where the burial service only was given. Misses Evelyn Denney and Marion Flint, the granddaughters from Wellesley college, arrived here Thursday, to be present at the burial.

Henry Booth presented to the Masonic lodge in this place on Tuesday night a beautiful Bible, to take the place of the old one, which had been in use through the 33 years in which the lodge had occupied that hall. Mr. Booth was the first candidate to receive the degrees in the lodge, the first time the old Bible was used, which was the first time also that Phoenix lodge occupied the present quarters, their former hall having been burned in the great fire 33 years ago.

All-Around Flour

Light, wholesome bread—flaky pastry—cake that melts in your mouth—all out of one sack!

That's William Tell Flour—equally good for every baking need.

William Tell is the most economical flour, too—it makes more loaves to the sack than ordinary flour.

That is because it is made from Ohio Red Winter Wheat—richest in bread making qualities.

Order a sack from your grocer today.

REPORT FAVORS PEARY.

Washington, Jan. 14.—The Bates bill providing for the elevation of Capt. Robert E. Peary to the rank of rear admiral in recognition of his attainment of the north pole, was reported favorably to the House yesterday by the committee on naval affairs. The vote of the committee thus to report it was unanimous, although Messrs. Roberts and Macon, who have opposed Peary, were not present.

DREAMLAND THEATRE

Programme for Today

LOVE IN QUARANTINE
Cupid works under quarantine. A beautiful little romance. Another Biography.

ON THE DOORSTEPS
A refined society comedy of what a fellow will do to spite himself. THE HOUSE OF SEVEN GABLES (by Nathaniel Hawthorne). Among the great dramatic stories of American writers there are but few that possess the fascination and interest of Hawthorne's.

LIZ'S CAREER
It's a great little farce, played with brightness.

THE TROUBLESOME BABY
A comedy depicting the difficulties into which a gentleman is plunged by holding a baby for another woman and his wife appears. It's a Biography.

Mr. Westall Sings Two of the Latest Songs.
